WH Comment: Said Station officer met with Ramon RUISANCHEZ Piedad, brother-in-law of ANHAWK, on 17 June, through AMANTHEN, on RUISANCHEZ' request, who gave info he wanted passed to ANHAWK re a group of 200 disaffected Cuban Army officers in Las Villas, and requested guidance from Station officer re use of group as well as assistance in exfiltrating one officer to U.S. Station officer replied RUISANCHEZ certainly must have come channels to ANHAWK in U.S. and saw no need of involving U.S. Embassy in matter. R. replied that U.S. State Dept already being used, but when asked would not give name of contact, saying could not violate trust. Since this not channel originally set up for contact with ANHAWK group HAVA, Station will discourage future relationship with RUISANCHEZ. Suggested ANHAWK be queried and requested HQs views.
